

NEW PADEP AST/UST FORMS

As part of a recent regulatory update, new forms have been created by DEP and existing forms have been revised, as follows

UST and AST Inspection Forms

The new Underground Storage Tank Facility Operations Inspection Report Form (2630-FM-BECB0501) and completion instructions may be located here

The DEP is in the process of updating the Guidelines for Conducting Underground Storage Tank (UST) Facility Operations Inspections (FOI) (263-3120-003) document to accompany the new inspection form; however, in the meantime, please see the attached summary sheet to assist you with completing it.

The new Aboveground Storage Tank Inspection Summary (2630-FM-BECB0150) and completion instructions may be located here

Please note that this new summary form must be used for Integrity In-Service Inspections, Integrity Out-of-Service Inspections and Installation Inspections. The previous Installation Inspection Summary has been deleted.

The new Aboveground Storage Tank Lining Inspection Summary (2630-FM-BECB0014) and completion instructions may be located here

UST Modification Report Form and UST Equipment Testing Forms

The new UST Modification Report Form (2630-FM-BECB0575) and completion instructions may be located here

There is also a wide variety of UST equipment testing forms that have been developed and released. Please note that the required UST equipment testing must be completed by a DEP-certified individual with the appropriate certification. A DEP-certified individual with IUM or UTT certifications may conduct the required containment sump, spill prevention equipment, and release detection testing. A DEP-certified individual with UMI or UMX certifications may conduct the required containment sump, spill prevention equipment, overfill prevention, and release detection testing.

Also, please note that the UST equipment testing forms will need to be completed by the DEP-certified individual(s) and maintained by the UST owner/operator for all new installations after December 22, 2018.

You may find all of the new forms here
