Press Release

RT Sponsors PA Chamber of Business and Industry 2013 Annual Environmental Conference and Trade Show

Wednesday,
April 17, 2013

Eden Resort Inn
& Suites
Lancaster, PA

Conference Description

The major environmental regulatory areas continue to see numerous changes at the state and federal level that impact business. EPA has new leadership and is expected to be more active with federal water and air quality regulations. DEP has changed its process for reviewing permit applications as part of its Permit Decision Guarantee initiative, and the Marcellus Shale has new energy related opportunities and activities -- all evolving at a fast pace.

That's why the Pennsylvania Chamber presents the state's top environmental field experts to provide the answers you need on the new rules and deadlines to ensure you are up to date and able to execute your company's environmental plan with confidence:

- The latest updates, compliance strategies and best practices from environmental experts with state-wide reputations for being top in their fields
- New opportunities and industry impacts from the Marcellus Shale Coalition
- The strategies to prepare and apply for permits under DEP's new permit application process
- Detailed, practical information that answers your questions and
