

PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF
ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION'S NEW POLICY
USE OF RECLAMATION FILL

- What you need to know about materials.
- Opportunities for expanded material reuse!
- How to avoid increased costs for disposing of materials to be hauled off during the job.

The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection has finalized Reclamation Fill process for finalizing protocols for reclamation fill took a long time, the final program is workable that all of those involved in earthwork and highway construction projects, and those who operate know.

Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Asphalt Paving Association and Associated Pennsylvania (Seminar is scheduled on March 10th, to apprise the construction and surface mine community and operators, can bid projects with more confidence. The Seminar is being held on Marc Radisson at Harrisburg West, and will have presentations by experts who are familiar with re managing the reuse of materials at surface mines.

Already, companies in York and Harrisburg are planning to open General Permit facilities to manage off the job, and to separate out cleaner materials so that they can go to surface mines at reuse. Other materials can be beneficially reused on construction projects. Expanding new facilities are expected now that the Reclamation Fill Guidance has been finalized. Gary Hungarter, P.E. of RT will be speaking.

APC and PAPA members are invited to learn how the Reclamation Fill provisions will work, an examples showing what earthwork and highway contractors are planning to take advantage opportunities at surface mines and General Permit opportunities under the Waste Program, to get the most cost effective mix of management options for return materials from projects can financial benefit.

Engineer PDH Hours will be available. The Seminar begins at 8:00 a.m. and Reclamation Fill mid-morning. Attendees can stay for Contingency Plan Training which will occur later into the and APC members can all attend the Seminar at the $40 member discount seminar fee rate.

For more information, you can contact Tina Holtzman at PAPA (717) 657-1881, or you can use form to sign up for the Seminar. The Seminar includes continental breakfast, and for those at for other PAPA Seminar topics, lunch is included as well.
